CREATOR OF LOVE HINA!

A Word from the Author

Please excuse my one-month silence. I now bring to you Volume 2 of Negima!

You may think that what sets this manga apart is this: "Later, when you read it again from the first frame of the first story, the conduct of the various characters is consistent." But just as you're thinking that, contradictions are already arising in their dialect and expressions. Yikes! There are 31 people so please overlook that a little. In any case, there are a lot of characters so it's tough remembering them, let alone managing them (ha ha!). However, the class rep, Chisame, and the like are favorites. There is a mountain of various characters and subplots that haven't been introduced yet, so everyone please imagine some various subplots of your own and enjoy! (If you think up any good ones please notify me by mail [ha ha]).

AKAMATSURI IS NOW OPEN!

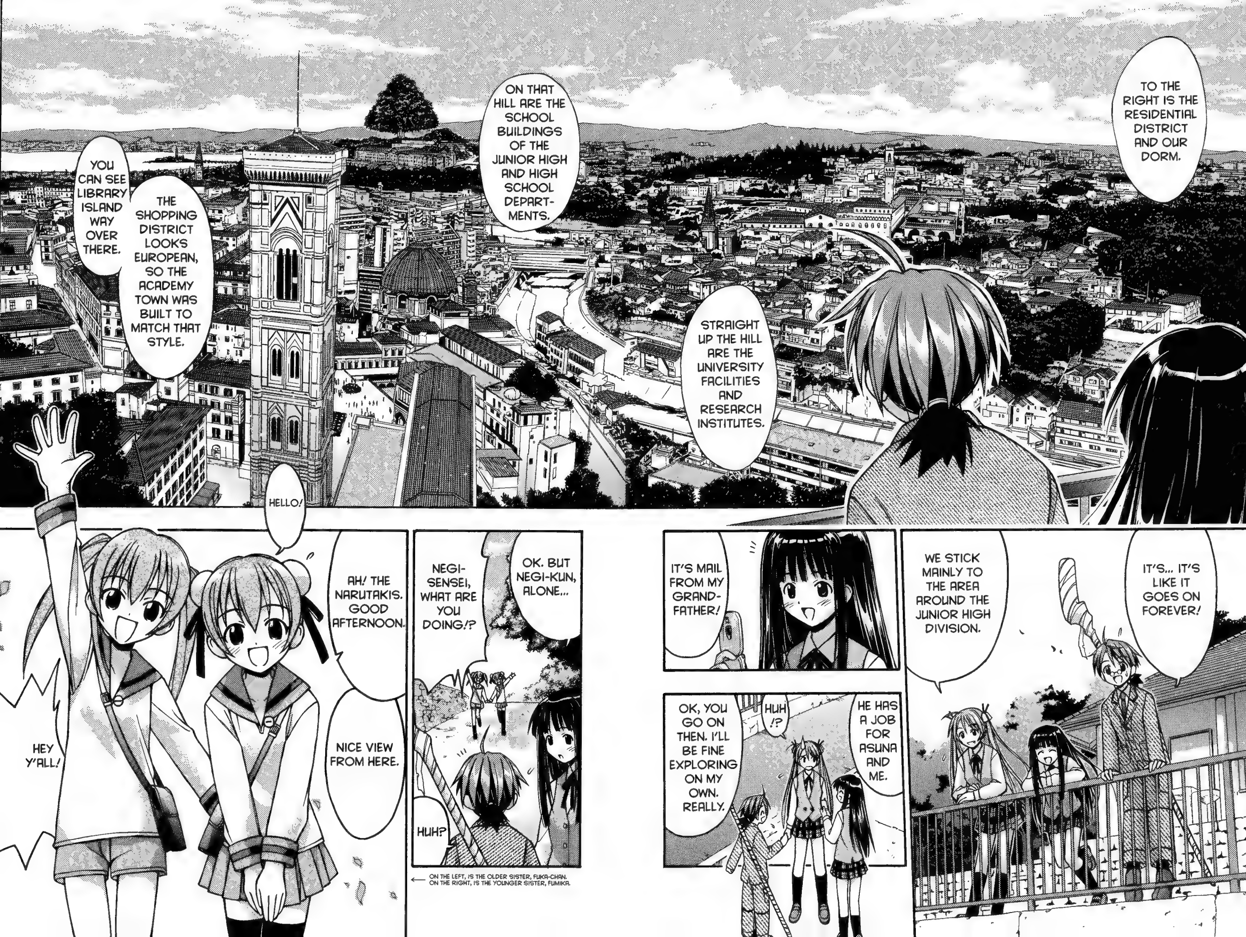
WOW!!
THIS... THIS IS MAGNIFICENT!



TO THE RIGHT IS THE RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT AND OUR DORM.
STRAIGHT UP THE HILL ARE THE UNIVERSITY FACILITIES AND RESEARCH INSTITUTES.
ON THAT HILL ARE THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS OF THE JUNIOR HIGH AND HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENTS.
THE SHOPPING DISTRICT LOOKS EUROPEAN, SO THE ACADEMY TOWN WAS BUILT TO MATCH THAT STYLE.
YOU CAN SEE LIBRARY ISLAND WAY OVER THERE.
IT'S... IT'S LIKE IT GOES ON FOREVER!
WE STICK MAINLY TO THE AREA AROUND THE JUNIOR HIGH DIVISION.
IT'S MAIL FROM MY GRANDFATHER!
HE HAS A JOB FOR ASUNA AND ME.
HUH!?
OK, YOU GO ON THEN. I'LL BE FINE EXPLORING ON MY OWN. REALLY.
OK. BUT NEGI-KUN, ALONE...
NEGI-SENSEI, WHAT ARE YOU DOING!?

THERE'S WHOLE TOURNAMENTS. STROLLING'S A TOUGH SPORT!

THERE'S ALWAYS PRO STROLLERS VYING TO TAKE THE NUMBER ONE SLOT.
AND EVERY YEAR, THE 'DEATH HIKE' ENDURANCE WALK ACROSS THE SAHARA RACKS UP CASUALTIES.

COMPILATION OF MATERIAL FOR THE BEGINNING SETTINGS OF NEGIMA!

THE ORIGINAL CHARACTER SKETCHES

THERE ARE MANY CHARACTERS THAT APPEAR IN NEGIMA! SO THREE ASSISTANTS AND I LIVE TOGETHER. WE DIVIDE THE WORK AND DECIDE THE MINUTE DETAILS OF THE SETTINGS. BECAUSE OF THIS, EVERY CHARACTER'S 'GROWING PAINS' ARE DIFFERENT. THIS TIME, WE'LL INTRODUCE THOSE SKETCH IDEAS.

IDEAS FOR NEGIMA'S UNIFORMS.

BECAUSE MAHORA ACADEMY ENCOMPASSES MANY SCHOOLS INCLUDING ELEMENTARY, JUNIOR HIGH, HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE DIVISIONS (WITH ITS MANY RESPECTIVE SCHOOLS), THERE ARE MANY UNIFORMS. THE UNIFORM IDEAS INTRODUCED HERE ARE THE BASIC ONES FOR ASUNA AND THE LIKE FROM THE JUNIOR HIGH DEPARTMENT. EVENTUALLY, BY MAJORITY DECISION WE USED THE BLAZER WITH CHECK PATTERNED SKIRT. CONCERNING THE SCHOOL BADGE DESIGN, THERE ARE VARIOUS DESIGNS AND WE'LL GET TO THAT AT THE NEXT OPPORTUNITY (HA HA)!

LATIUM LEXICON NEGIMARIUM

Compiled by Minoru Ashi

- Magister Negi Magi. Magic-Sensei Negima is the subtitle in the Japanese edition. Well, Latin is used everywhere in the world. Here, magister means sensei. Negi is a proper name. Magi means magical. Basically, it translates to Wizard Negi-Sensei. (So what in the world does the 'ma' in Negima! mean?)

- The Latin used in Negima! has cases where the long vowels are not extended owing to the convenience of rhythm. For example, magi is actually pronounced ma-gee but as he is often called ma-jai so he comes to be called magi.

- Magister Magi also means magical people. Magi is the plural case of wizard. The singular nominative case is magus. Magister here means people. As written above, it also means sensei and is equivalent to the English master and the German meister.

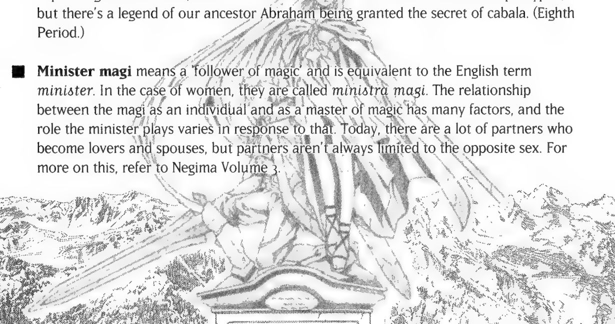
- Melchizedek. The Vulgata translation of the Bible (Genesis 14:17-20) says that upon returning from the subjugation of Cherdorlaomer and the kings who were allied with him, King Sodom came to meet Abram in Valley Shaveh. The king of Salem, Melchizedek, a priest of the supreme god, came there bringing bread and wine. Melchizedek said blessings to Abram. The blessing asked of the supreme god, creator of heaven and earth, was for Abram. The blessing also promised to deliver the enemy into the clutches of the supreme god. In Hebrew, it's Melchizedek. It's not written in the canons or Apocrypha, but there's a legend of our ancestor Abraham being granted the secret of cabala. (Eighth Period.)

- Minister magi means a 'follower of magic' and is equivalent to the English term minister. In the case of women, they are called ministra magi. The relationship between the magi as an individual and as a master of magic has many factors, and the role the minister plays varies in response to that. Today, there are a lot of partners who become lovers and spouses, but partners aren't always limited to the opposite sex. For more on this, refer to Negima Volume 3.



Spells

- Rastel maskil magister. This is not Latin (and that language is the key to releasing magic), and it seems like it's a code with no meaning. Rastel maskil magister is the exclusive incantation for Negi Springfield. Each and every wizard thinks of one for themselves, and Negi came up with his own when he graduated from magic school. In the case of simple magic, you can abbreviate it. (First used in Second Period.)

- Age nascatur, potio amoris. Literally: well, in life, a love potion. This is a spell for the preparation of magic medicine. Potio means potion in Latin. Used for the purification of love potions. (Second Period.)

- Aer aer amplificet mammas. Air, atmosphere, breasts expand. Negi calls on the power of a friendly air spirit to manipulate the air. In this case, it created an air bubble around Asuna's chest, making it seem like she had huge breasts. To actually change Asuna's appearance, Negi would have needed to use the spell mammae crescant, which means, in short, "breasts become larger!" (Third Period.)

- Salent, penicili. Dance, brushes. Making things move is basic magic. (Fourth Period.)

- Aer... Magic word meaning air. Used by Negi, angry at the attack by Black Lily from the dodge ball club, to call on the air spirit. In the previous panel, an air current was starting to happen. However, in the middle of the incantation he was hit by Asuna, so just how powerful the spell is remains a mystery. (Sixth Period.)

- Tria fila nigra prommissiva, mihi limitationem per tres dies. Three black pledge strings, a restriction on myself for three days. A spell that Negi cast on himself, bottling up his own magic power. Can also be used to contain the magic of enemies who possess magic powers. (Seventh Period.)

- Undecim spiritus lucis, coeuntes segittant inimicum, sagitta magica. The 11 pillars of spirit light! Come gather and light up my enemy, magic archer. Sagitta magica means magic arrow. Spiritus is 'spirit' in English. Calling on a minor spirit, it's a spell that shoots the enemy you're facing. Depending on the spirit you call on, the effect is different. A rudimentary battle spell, but the scope of its application is wide. (Tenth Period.)

- Fragrantia floris, amicis vigorem, vitalitatem, auram salutarem refectio. The fragrance of a flower, a wind that will fill my friends with energy, vitality, and health. Complete energy recovery. The flower that Negi uses is the catalyst. That catalyst makes it easier to cast the spell and heightens the effect. A spell that refreshes one's mood.

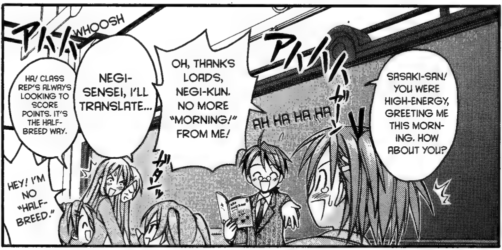
Translation Notes

Japanese is a tricky language for most westerners, and translation is often more art than science. For your edification and reading pleasure, here are notes on some of the places where we could have gone in a different direction in our translation of the work, or where a Japanese cultural reference is used.

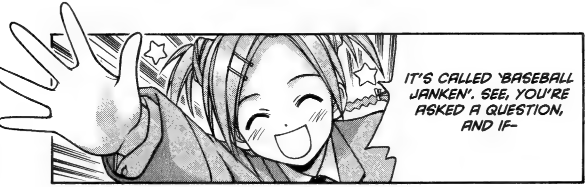
Half and Half, page 6



アハハハ
SASAKI-SAN! YOU WERE HIGH-ENERGY, GREETING ME THIS MORNING. HOW ABOUT YOU?
AH HA HA HA
OH, THANKS LOADS, NEGI-KUN. NO MORE "MORNING!" FROM ME!
NEGI-SENSEI, I'LL TRANSLATE...
WHOOSH
アハハ
HA! CLASS REP'S ALWAYS LOOKING TO SCORE POINTS. IT'S THE HALF-BREED WAY.
HEY! I'M NO "HALF-BREED."

In this context in Japanese, the term "half" used here indicates mixed ancestry, so we gave it the closest English translation: "half-breed."

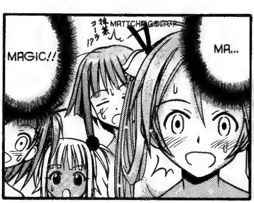
Baseball Janken, page 11



IT'S CALLED 'BASEBALL JANKEN'. SEE, YOU'RE ASKED A QUESTION, AND IF–

Janken is the Japanese name for "rock, paper, scissors," but this version is usually played as a drinking game accompanied by a song about baseball that incorporates the "safe" and "out" rules used in baseball. If one loses, or gets out, you have to remove articles of clothing so it's something like strip janken.

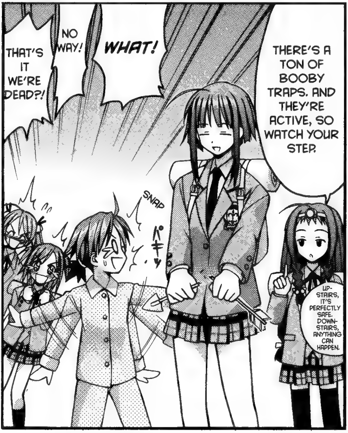
Mattcha Cola, page 19



MA...
抹茶コーラ!?
MATTCHA COLA!?
MAGIC!!

Mattcha is a high-grade green tea used in the traditional Japanese Tea Ceremony.

Safe! page 25

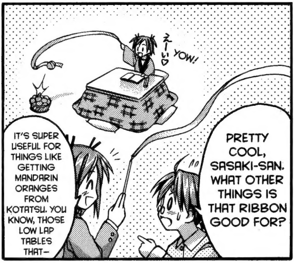


THERE'S A TON OF BOOBY TRAPS. AND THEY'RE ACTIVE, SO WATCH YOUR STEP.
WHAT!
NO WAY!
THAT'S IT WE'RE DEAD?!
SNAP
パキッ
UPSTAIRS, IT'S PERFECTLY SAFE. DOWNSTAIRS, ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN.

The word being used to describe the library in Japanese is matomo, which means honest, decent or proper, not safe. But because Japanese is such a contextual language, it's meant to indicate that the library is free of traps, or safe.

Kotatsu, page 29

A kotatsu is a low table with a blanket placed under it that covers the legs. A small heater is underneath the table keeping your feet warm. Older kotatsus have a sunken floor where you can stretch your legs.



YOW!
PRETTY COOL, SASAKI-SAN. WHAT OTHER THINGS IS THAT RIBBON GOOD FOR?
IT'S SUPER USEFUL FOR THINGS LIKE GETTING MANDARIN ORANGES FROM KOTATSU. YOU KNOW, THOSE LOW LAP TABLES THAT—

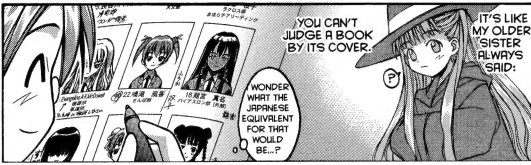
HUH...
CHECK ME OUT. I'M "SESSHA," THE SAMURAI WHO ASSISTS HARD LUCK WOMEN.
THANKS KAEDE-SAN.
THAT'S IT! ONE FOR ALL AND ALL FOR ONE!

Sessha, page 71

Sessha is a condescending word that samurais used to refer to themselves. It also refers to a character from a book written in the 17th century that assisted women down on their luck.

Make Cake, Not Love, page 128



IT'S LIKE MY OLDER SISTER ALWAYS SAID:
YOU CAN'T JUDGE A BOOK BY ITS COVER.
WONDER WHAT THE JAPANESE EQUIVALENT FOR THAT WOULD BE...?

The literal translation of what Negi's sister said to him was "Love cake rather than love make," which means eating (or surviving) is more important than other things like love. In this context, however, it means "you can't judge a book by its cover."

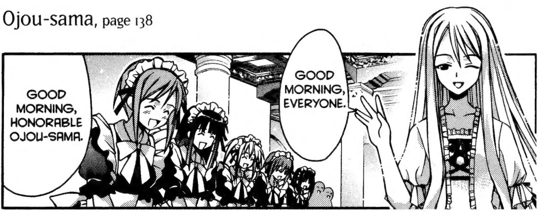
Actually, what this said in Japanese was "More like a dango than a flower." A dango is a roasted rice ball that comes on a stick, usually three at a time.

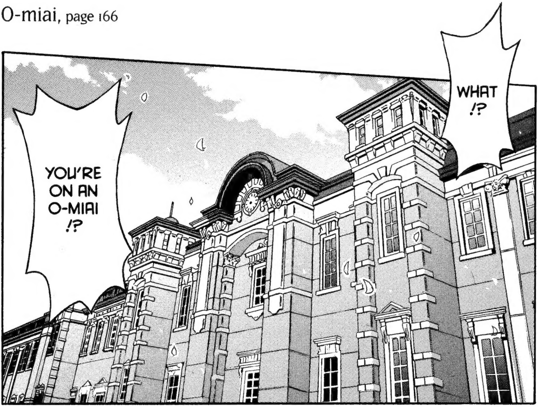
Ojou-sama, page 138



GOOD MORNING, EVERYONE.
GOOD MORNING, HONORABLE OJOU-SAMA.

Ojou-sama is a way of referring to the daughter or sister of someone with high political or social status.

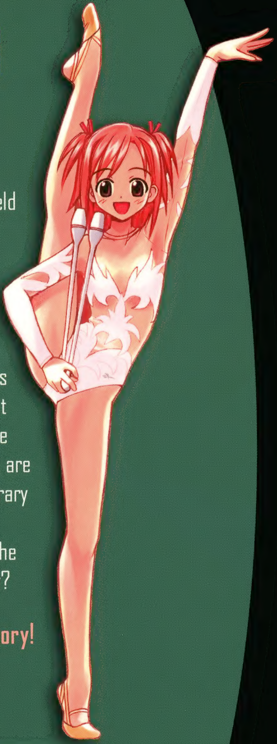
O-miai, page 166



WHAT !?
YOU'RE ON AN O-MIAI !?

An O-miai is a date set up usually by one's parents, where information about each person is exchanged. Kind of like a blind date. Ideally, it leads to marriage. O-miai are becoming less popular in Japan as people seek to find their own partners. However, they are still used for people who for some reason or another have trouble finding a mate.

KNOWLEDGE CAN BE DANGEROUS!



For ten-year-old teacher Negi Springfield and his all-girl class, it's time for final exams! If his students manage not to end up with the lowest scores in school, the principal has promised to make Negi an official teacher. To prepare for the tests, the class takes a trip to the school's Library Island. But this is no quiet place to study . . . stone golems, traps, and secret passageways are the norm throughout the enormous library building. With all of these distractions, can Negi's class hope to climb out of the cellar—both academically and literally?

Includes special extras after the story!
